

Help to Live at Home Customer Reference Group

- Are you receiving personal care or housing related support in Wiltshire?
- Do you know people who are receiving care or care for someone else who is?
- Are you interested in the quality of care that people receive?
- Do you want to influence the quality of care that is provided to people in Wiltshire?

Why not join the Customer Reference Group?

Providing an independent voice for people receiving services to help them stay safely at home.

The customer reference group members consist of carers, service users, tenants of sheltered accommodation and retired professionals from across Wiltshire. Members of this group share one common interest, ensuring that the care and services being provided are the best they can be.
